

As an Interior Designer, why do you need Liability insurance?

SHOULD YOU GET COVERED?

You and your business are at risk of being named in a lawsuit.

If Guilty – you must pay defense and judgment costs

If Not Guilty – you must pay defense costs

General Liability insurance provides protection for lawsuits brought against you and your business due to negligent acts whether found Guilty or Not Guilty.

Do You Know?

Your homeowners insurance and personal umbrella insurance excludes your business pursuits.

Protect Your Assets from these types of losses:

- General Liability Lawsuits
- Contractual Liability Lawsuits
- Products Liability Lawsuits
- Advertising Liability Lawsuits
- Personal Injury-Libel and Slander Liability Lawsuits

Interior Design Society and Home Furnishings Insurance Group have set up an insurance program just for you, the Interior Designer.
